CJVI

Victoria, B.C.

November 23, 1955

Mr. Ron B. Schiller,
30 Park Avenue,
Avenel, New Jersey.

Dear Mr. Schiller:

Thank you for your reception report indicating you had received C J V I, Victoria, B.C. on November 15, 1955.

The information listed, as you said, was meagre. However, we were able to confirm through your listing of "A Blossom Fell" by Nat King Cole. This recording was played, as you stated, at 12:23 a.m., Pacific Time, or 3:23 a.m. Eastern Standard Time.

We were very pleased to receive your report, and we trust you will have success in receiving C J V I at some future time.

C J V I, Victoria is located in the capitol city of the Province of British Columbia. Our station operates on at 24-hour daily basis, and is powered with 5000 watts. Our transmitter site is at The Uplands, approximately seven miles from the downtown section of Victoria.

May we wish you continued success at DX'ing.

Sincerely,

Hugh Curtis,
Promotion Manager.
